Performance

Investors should carefully consider the investment objectives, risks, charges, and expenses of a FINQ ETF before investing. This and other important information is contained in the FINQ ETFs' prospectuses, which may be obtained at finqai.com. The prospectus should be read carefully before investing.

An investment in a FINQ ETF involves risks, including the possible loss of principal. There can be no assurance that the FINQ ETFs will achieve their investment objectives. Shares are listed on NYSE Arca and may be bought and sold in the secondary market at market prices, which may be above or below the ETFs' net asset value ("NAV"). Market prices of FINQ ETF shares will fluctuate with changes in NAV as well as supply and demand. During periods of volatility, the market price of FINQ ETF shares may differ significantly from their NAV. Shares may only be redeemed directly with the ETFs at NAV by Authorized Participants in large creation units. Buying or selling shares on an exchange may require the payment of brokerage commissions, and frequent trading may reduce investment returns.
